Youth Missing

Since Thursday

A 14-year old 'Clermont Harbor' girl has been reported missing from her home since June 22.

Kathleen Sangsten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sangsten, was last seen riding in a 1965 Chevrolet hardtop with Bobby Goldman, 16.

Police gave the following description of Kathleen: blond hair, green eyes, approximately five feet, four inches and weighs 122 pounds. She was wearing dark blue pants, a white shirt and white shoes. Goldman is described as about five feet, eight inches and weighing 140 pounds. He has "bushy" blond hair, according to police.

An all points bulletin has been put out for Miss Sangsten. Anyone having information on her whereabouts is urged to call the Hancock County Sheriff's office at 467-5101.

Chamber of Commerce and Master of Ceremonies for the banquet. To the right is James Callion, chairman of the Jaycee project.

Award Given For Church Design

A Bay St. Louis-New Orleans architectural firm has been presented a national award by the Guild for Religious Architecture for architectural excellence in designing Christ Episcopal Church in Bay St. Louis.

The award was given to Blitch Associates, Ltd., Architects, in competition with architectural firms throughout the United States.

The Blitch firm was cited for its "Overall architectural excellence" in the design of the church for "its outstanding use of building materials to enhance their inherent beauty; for excellence in workmanship; for skillful organization of plan elements; and for integration of appropriate works of art."

The new Christ Episcopal Church was completed in April, 1971, replacing the old structure which was damaged by Hurricane Camille in 1969. The Honor Award plaque will be presented to the church by the architectural firm in special ceremonies to be held Sunday, following the 10 a.m. services. Presentation will be made by Bill Argus, Jr., executive vice president of Blitch who was project architect, to Waldo Dearing, senior warden.

Assisting in the presentation will be Douglas Koger, junior warden; and Rev. Charles Johnson, rector of Christ Episcopal Church.

The ceremonies will be held in the church plaza under the bell tower. The new church and parish house were built by Claude Hogan Construction Company of Waveland at a cost of $200,000. Both buildings overlook the Gulf. The church seats 200 persons and has a choir area in the rear, seating 30 singers. Its exterior is of white sand cement finish and all openings in the church and parish house are provided with removable, pre-fitted hurricane shutters.

Dominant features of the church are a 20-foot steeple on top of a bell-tower roof deck, and the center of a large cement plaza. The chapel is open on all sides and is designed as the primary entrance to the church. The plaza and bell tower chapel are being utilized for weddings and baptisms and can accommodate 500 persons when used in conjunction with the parish house with all doors open.

The parish house seats 200 and is known as Virginia Hall, named in honor of Mrs. Virginia Watts, who served for many years as church secretary.

Lakeshore Road Problems Aired

County engineer Larry Seals told supervisors Monday that drainage problems on the Lakeshore Road may force the board to obtain additional easements from property owners.

Plans for Lakeshore Road construction do not call for drainage ditches and Seals said that water will flow onto property adjoining the road. In order to build the ditches, easements will have to be obtained to increase the right-of-way.

Beat One Supervisor Jerry Lodner told Seals that if necessary, he will contact the people personally. Seals told the board that a decision will be made after State Aid Road Division inspections this week.

"construction is going well," In other business Monday, Lucien Kidd, Hancock County Civil Defense director presented a certificate of appreciation to the board for their participation and support of the Older Americans Areawide Model Project. Kidd also received a certificate for his efforts to establish the project in Hancock County.

An appeal to air condition the county courtroom was made by local attorney Walter J. Phillips. Phillips told the board that heat and noise from the fans made it uncomfortable during courtroom Monday at 9 a.m.

proceedings. "With four terms of court, we desperately need a cooling system," Phillips emphasized. The board agreed to look into the cost of air-conditioning the room but told Phillips that money was not available at this time.

A letter from the city of Waveland asking supervisors to better maintain the beaches was answered with a resolution requesting that both Bay St. Louis and Waveland aid in the enforcement of the county's litter laws. The board will meet Monday at 9 a.m.

Will The Real State Bird Please Stand Up?

By Adoree Shortle
Echo Staff writer

In an article about pelicans returning briefly to Waveland in last week's Echo, the pelican was erroneously reported to be the Mississippi state bird.

Several local readers immediately pointed out to this writer that although we seemed to know a good deal about pelicans, we obviously didn't know much about state birds.

But, taken from a logical point of view, one has to assume that the species of bird chosen for the honor of representing the state is the one which is not only indigenous but is the most plentiful. Therefore, although this writer was born and half-reared in Louisiana, the only pelicans we ever saw (when one could see any pelicans at all) were on the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Never did see one in Louisiana.

There is, of course, the unlikely possibility that we didn't frequent the same places as Louisiana pelicans; or that all those viewed on the Mississippi Coast were Louisiana birds which had wisely migrated to the coast for a sun-filled summer. (Pelican-watching was strictly a summer sport).

There are other possibilities for being considered in the line of rationalization for covering an embarrassing mistake, but they're too lengthy to list here.

Suffice it to say that we were only being facetious in the original statement. We knew all along that the Mississippi state bird is really the seagull.

Local Voters Support Stone

Gulfport Senator Ben Stone won an overwhelming victory in Tuesday's runoff against Howard L. Patterson to become the Democratic nominee for U.S. Representative from the Fifth District. Unofficial returns in Hancock County show Stone with 1,371 votes to Patterson's 797.

In the race for Supreme Court judge, Harry G. Walker carried Hancock County with 1,384. His opponent Darwin Maples captured only 729 votes.

Roy B. Strickland, Wiggins attorney, carried Hancock County but lost the race to Gulfport attorney John S. Morris. Strickland's vote count was 1,303 to Morris' 838.

Former Bay St. Louis Police Chief Robert Goodsell will face Phillip W. Malley in a runoff for Constable, Beat Three.

Unofficial totals are: Malley, 179; Goodsell, 168; Gaston Ladner, 114; J.B. Ladner, 89; Troyce Necaise, 55; L.B. Ladner, 46; John V. Ladner, 42; and A.J. Ramage, 33.

Crime Commission Completes Survey On Police Salaries

Robert O. Rasch, president of the Mississippi Coast Crime Commission, has announced the completion of a survey conducted by the Commission regarding police salaries, fringe benefits, retirement and employment security in municipalities of Hancock, Harrison and Jackson counties.

Rasch said, "This survey represents a compilation of statistics including the Police Departments of Moss Point, Pascagoula, Ocean Springs, Biloxi, Gulfport, Long Beach, Pass Christian and Bay St. Louis. These comparative statistics bring into sharp focus the need for immediate action by the leadership in every municipality to establish acceptable salaries and benefits for our police officers compatible with our Coast economy."

"We sincerely hope that this survey will be accepted by municipal leadership as an instrument with which they can intelligently appraise and evaluate this segment of government so close to each of our citizens and take immediate steps, in every manner possible, to dignify police positions with salaries and benefits commensurate with their responsibilities."

On the other hand, Rasch said, "The public may not be aware of the embarrassing financial positions in which most of our police officers have been placed through the years through the failure of their compensation keeping pace with the economy. It is the intention of this survey, to stimulate and encourage total public, moral, physical and financial support for the leadership of our municipal governments in their efforts to implement respectable and realistic personnel programs."

"According to Rasch, "A copy of this survey has been furnished to each mayor of the selected and involved municipality."

RECOMMENDATIONS BY MISSISSIPPI COAST CRIME COMMISSION FOR INCREASE OF POLICE SALARIES, FRINGE BENEFITS, RETIREMENT AND EMPLOYMENT SECURITY IN MUNICIPALITIES OF HANCOCK, HARRISON AND JACKSON COUNTIES.

As a result of a survey conducted by this Commission over the past few months, and based upon statistics furnished by the municipalities located in Hancock, Harrison and Jackson counties, and cities of the surrounding area with law enforcement problems relative and germane to those facing the Mississippi Gulf Coast, it is shockingly apparent, with few exceptions, that our municipalities must face the fundamental reality that the salaries, fringe benefits, retirement and employment security of our police officers must be given top priority for immediate improvement.

Historically and traditionally, the police officer has been forced to assume the role of the stepchild in our governmental structure. He has never received the respectable remuneration due and commensurate with his official responsibility, his personal physical risk, or his position in the community. This is not entirely the fault of those responsible elected officials because their offices, for one reason or another, have been under pressures in the development of our physical and natural resources. This Commission, in a judgment we believe is shared by both public officials and the public, is convinced that emphasis, now, in this instance, must be placed on these human resources.

We believe that our mayors, commissioners, aldermen and councilmen, with total public, sympathetic and constructive support, should declare a moratorium on all planned physical or natural developments and all necessary and legally available funds should be diverted and channeled into the improvement of salaries and financial conditions of our police department. Whatever

Mayor Gives Fund Account Balances

The city of Bay St. Louis' 19 fund account balances reflected a total of $1,000,006.57 on deposit at the close of business May 31, 1972, according to Mayor Warren Carver.

General operating funds from which all salaries personnel (excluding utilities) are paid accounted for only $42,107.14. Special purpose funds such as Library Fund, State Grant Fund, State Loan Funds, and Municipal Fire Protection Fund accounted for $458,867.36. Funds to retire maturing bonds and interest on city obligations totaled $364,989.12. Utilities, system operating and special fund account balances accounted for $134,042.95.

Of the total cash on hand, $750,506.85 was invested in interest bearing government notes or in insured savings accounts. The remaining $249,499.72 was in regular checking accounts.

Anyone desiring more specific information concerning these fund balances may contact the mayor's office. A copy of the statement will be mailed upon request.

CLOSED TUESDAY Coast Postmasters announce the observance of Independence Day on Tuesday, July 4, 1972. All Post Offices will be closed on that day and no service will be given on city or rural routes and no window service will be available. All mail addressed to Post Office boxes will be given service and SPECIAL DELIVERY mail received will be delivered on that day. Regular holiday schedule of dispatch will be given all mail received for dispatch. All mail available will be delivered on Monday, July 3.

Bay Council Holds Recessed Meeting

A petition to allow Bay St. Louis packaged liquor stores to open at 6 p.m. on election days will be forwarded to the State Tax Commission by the city financing committee. The petition was presented to the Bay Council on Monday.

In making the motion to forward the petition, Commissioner Andre Arceneaux pointed out that bars are allowed to open at 6 p.m. and he believes that the packaged stores should have the same privilege. The vote was unanimous.

In other business at Monday's recessed meeting, the council voted to allow the city's plumbing inspector to collect one hundred percent of all fees up to $300; after $300 the inspector will receive seventy percent and the city, thirty percent.

Because of schedule conflicts, a meeting to discuss financing renovation of Bay Junior High has been postponed until June 10.

Some Are...
Some Aren't

by Marileen Maher
Echo News Editor

Often, elected officials cannot agree on major issues; in fact, they seldom agree on MINOR issues. However, Bay St. Louis city officials cannot agree on when to close City Hall for the July 4 holiday. Here are the facts. The tax and utility offices will be closed Tuesday but open Monday. The mayor's office will be closed Monday but will be open Tuesday. Got it?

Mayor Carver claims that he is following the new custom of Monday closing no matter when the holiday falls. Commissioners Arceneaux and Frable claim that this holiday does not fall under the Monday category and will close Tuesday as stipulated by state law.

Confused? Try this remedy. Don't go to city hall either day but wait until Wednesday. In fact, perhaps it would be better to stay away altogether.

Happy Fourth, boys.

Questions and Answers

Q. I'm signed up for both parts of Medicare. After a car accident last month, I had some teeth broken and had to go to the hospital for jaw surgery. Will Medicare pay any of this?

A. Yes, Medicare covers this type of surgery, but not ordinary dental care.

Q. I was hospitalized for two weeks last month. Because of my condition, my doctor requested a private room for me. Will my Medicare coverage pay for my private room?

A. Yes, Medicare can pay for a private room when it is medically necessary. Of course, the hospital will bill you for the first $68 of covered hospital services—which is the hospital insurance deductible at the present time.

Q. When I recently became 62, I was told by the people at the social security office that I needed one more quarter of work to be eligible for monthly payments. I now have an opportunity to work in a friend's store, but the work will only last for 4 weeks. Do I have to work a full 3-month calendar quarter to get the credit I need?

A. No. As long as you are paid at least $50 in wages in any part of a calendar quarter, you get credit for the whole quarter under social security.

Have a question about social security and its retirement, survivors, disability or Medicare benefits? See your telephone directory for the phone number and address of the nearest social security office.

OEP Picks Up City Tab

Long Beach Mayor William Skellie told city aldermen at a recent meeting that the Office of Emergency Preparedness had approved a request for $223,899 to the city as reimbursement and completion money for restoration work now in progress on the city's sanitary sewer collection system, lift stations and sewer treatment plant.

The approval, Skellie said, came as a result of a recently completed field survey requested by the Mayor for OEP assistance.

The sewer system project, he explained, is part of approximately $700,000 of municipal improvement programs now in progress throughout the city.

Police Discover Robberies

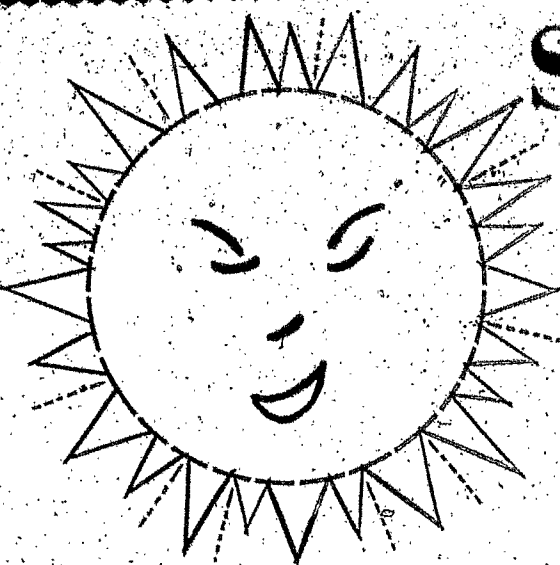

Pass Christian Patrolmen Guy Allret and Bill Markopolous discovered two service station robberies Monday morning about 2 a.m. while on patrol.

Stations involved were the Gulf Station on Market and Highway 90 and a Texaco station on Eleanor Drive and Highway 90.

In each instance entry was gained through a broken window on the east side of the building. Gulf station owner Jerry Humphrey reported the loss of $12 in cash from his station and approximately $8 was reported taken from the Texaco station.

According to police both cases are under investigation and each station owner intends to prosecute.

AMERICANISM

Dr. Henry Van Dyke - some years ago - defined Americanism in these words: "What is true Americanism, and where does it reside? Its dwelling is in the heart. It speaks a score of dialects, but one language, follows a hundred paths to the same goal, performs a thousand kinds of service in loyalty to the same ideal which is its life. True Americanism is this: To believe that the inalienable rights of man to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness are given by God. To believe that any form of power that tramples on these is unjust. To believe that taxation without representation is tyranny, that government must rest upon the consent of the governed, and that the people shall choose their own rules. To believe that freedom must be safeguarded by law and order, and that the ends of freedom must be safeguarded by law and order, and that the ends of freedom is fair play to all." Let us keep America free. Freedom that lasts comes when one totally commits himself to Jesus Christ, the Lord. Know Real Freedom Now - Know Christ STRAIGHT AHEAD!!!

Tips To Veterans And Dependents

PREPARED BY CHESTER CURVEY HANCOCK COUNTY VETERANS SERVICE OFFICER

All veterans 65 years of age or older with an annual income of $2000.00 or less, if single, and $3000.00 or less, if married, should contact the Veterans Service Officer to determine eligibility for veterans' benefits. educational allowance from the Veterans Administration plus $36.00 per week, plus $5.00 per dependent per week, plus three cents per mile travel from the MDTA. It could amount to over $400.00 per month pay for learning a trade.

All veterans who received other than an honorable discharge are reminded that within 15 years after discharge they may apply to a Board of Review with authority to change, correct or modify any discharge or dismissal from the service that was NOT the result of a General Court-martial. The Board may direct issuance of a new discharge. The veteran, his surviving spouse, next of kin, or legal representative should do this as soon as possible. It could establish eligibility for VA benefits. THIS IS VERY IMPORTANT. All widows and children of deceased veterans are reminded that they are entitled to a Headstone or Marker, without charge, for the grave of the veteran. See your Veterans Service Officer for particulars. All area offices of the State Employment Service have a Veterans Employment Representative. His job is to help veterans get jobs and occupational training. If you don't already know him, get acquainted. The name of the VERA at Gulfport is Mr. Denelie. The name of the VERA at Biloxi is Mr. O'Mar.

All veterans who do not have a trade are reminded that under the Manpower Development Training Act, he can train for a skill in the following fields: Body repairman and Diesel and Conventional Automotive maintenance; House Builder (mortal and lumber); Drafting; Welding and Production Machine Operation (lathes, shapers etc.). While taking this training he will receive his Veterans wishing to inquire about Federal job openings should check announcements in the Post Office or write to the Regional or Area Office of the United States Civil Service Commission. The address for this region is: Mr. Myrah C. Bright, Veterans Federal Employment Representative, Atlanta Merchandise Mart, 240 Peachtree Street N.W., Atlanta Georgia 30303.

Our readers write

Dear Sir:

A headline on the front page of the New Orleans Times-Picayune of June 20 reads "Mississippi - Tops in Road Deaths". A report released by the National Safety Council showed Mississippi leading the nation in average deaths per 100 million miles traveled.

Why? We should know the reasons why our State has the unwelcome distinction of leading the nation in the terrible slaughter on our highways, and what public officials and drivers should be doing to improve the situation. We need positive goals and an all out attack on all fronts!

Mississippi public officials, State, County and Local, should make a careful and comprehensive analysis of highway accident statistics in order to pinpoint the root causes and initiate corrective action. Comparisons should be made with sections of this and other States where relatively good safety records have been achieved and influencing factors evaluated. We may find in sections of Mississippi greater incidence of such things as speeding, drunken driving, overloaded trucks, bald tires, etc. If we do so find the remedies may be obvious. Answers should be factual and summarized for all to see - and done fast because the mortality rate in Mississippi is a scream for action!

Very truly yours,

Fred H. Fisher

Funeral services for Wilton Israel Ladner, 49, who died Tuesday, June 20, were held Thursday afternoon at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Dedeaux, with Rev. James P. Miller, Gulfport, celebrant of the requiem Mass.

Interment was in Standard Sand Hill Cemetery. Pallbearers were Billy Ray Ladner, David Ladner, Quinn McKay, Coy McKay, Gaston Ory and Arvis Ladner.

A resident of Standard Community, Mr. Ladner was a retired longshoreman for Sealand Terminal Company, Gulfport. He was born March 5, 1923, in Hancock County.

He was a veteran of World War II, a member of American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Catholic Church.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Ester Ladner; three sons, A.W., Ross and Kenneth Ladner, all of Standard; six daughters, Mrs. Chet Cuevas, Poplarville; Mrs. Donald Cuevas, Subisson Community; Mrs. Garvis Ladner, Lizana; Miss Gloria Ann Ladner, Miss Beldina Ladner and Miss Jennifer Darnell Ladner, all of Standard; a step-daughter, Mrs. Gordon Spiers, Gulfport; his mother, Mrs. Irene Ladner; a sister, Mrs. Grace Ladner; a brother, Wilmer Ladner, all of Standard; and six grandchildren.

C.A. THOMPSON

Funeral services for Christian A. (Chris) Thompson, 94, who died Friday morning in Howard Memorial Hospital, Biloxi, were held Saturday morning from Bradford-O'Keefe Funeral Home followed by a Requiem Mass at Nativity Catholic Church.

Interment was in Biloxi Cemetery with Lester Thompson Jr., Clemmie Gillikin, Christian Thompson Jr., John Peranich, Floyd Caillavet and Cecil Creel Jr. serving as pallbearers. A native of Hancock County,

Mr. Thompson resided in Biloxi for 84 years. He was a retired building contractor.

Survivors include three sons, Christian G. Thompson, Mobile, Ala.; Lester J. Thompson Sr., and Howard M. Thompson, both of Biloxi; a daughter, Mrs. Cecil B. Creel, Long Beach, Miss.; 10 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren.

Mr. Thompson was the husband of the late Laura Caillavet Thompson and a brother of the late Mrs. Joseph O. Mauffray of Bay St. Louis.

Forestry Report

Mississippi's state-produced tree seedlings are one of the best buys today. Seedlings can be purchased for a very nominal fee.

The first thousand pine seedlings are free, then $6.00 for each additional thousand. Transportation charge is fifty cents per thousand for both free and purchased seedlings. Hardwood seedlings sell for $13.00 per thousand trees.

Many landowners in the past have waited too late to make an application for their seedlings. You should order your seedlings now to get the desired species. Contact Michael Hendry, County Forester, or any Agricultural Agency to make your application. The seedlings will be delivered during the winter months.

Spaceships are appearing in increasing numbers on airports throughout the country in the form of four-place, single engine airplanes. Named the Aero Commander 112 and built by North American Rockwell, the plane is the first totally new general aviation airplane design introduced by a major manufacturer since 1961. It is one of a complete line of aircraft which will be built at NE's Albany, Ga., plant.

Many of the design and construction techniques developed in the nation's space program have been applied to this new Commander. As a result, space technology has been transferred to the general aviation industry allowing for the production of stronger, more reliable aircraft with fewer individual components.

Shaggy Dog Story?

Restaurant Built Around Rock Astounds Visitors

Huge rock makes uniquely decorative "centerpiece" for new Rock City Restaurant.

LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN, Ga. - Mix together a modern restaurant, a huge rock in the center of the restaurant and a large shaggy English sheepdog named Danny, and you have a recipe for a problem.

When architects designed a new restaurant for Rock City Gardens, a tourist attraction atop Lookout Mountain near Chattanooga, Tenn., an immense rock dominated the area selected for construction.

Rather than demolish the rock, the architects conceived the bold idea of including the rock as part of the restaurant's design. Workmen carefully built the entire restaurant around the rock, without disturbing its natural appearance. The unusual formation became the "conversation piece" of the restaurant and visitors marveled at its size. Many people wondered "how they got it in through the door."

English sheepdog's favorite outdoor spot is now indoors.

In the excitement of the restaurant's success, it was forgotten that the big rock had been the favorite sitting place of Danny, a genial sheepdog who enjoyed watching the passing parade of tourists entering and leaving Rock City. In Danny's eyes, the rock had disappeared. Life wasn't the same, for the march of progress had "taken away" his huge rock.

Then, one day, Danny galloped into the restaurant. He saw the rock, bounded to the top, and sat happily at the summit to watch the people.

The problem? It's difficult enough to convince visitors to the Rock City Restaurant that the building was actually built around and over the giant rock.

But when Danny comes marching into the restaurant to take his favorite seat, the whole thing begins to look and sound like a shaggy dog story. Sample menus from what is probably the world's most unusual restaurant may be obtained by writing P. O. Box 173, Chattanooga, Tenn., 37350.

Largest To Cross Atlantic

The "Universe Japan" is the largest ship ever to cross the Atlantic, and one of the largest ships in the world. It is shown on the last leg of its first transatlantic voyage in the Strait of Canso near Point Tupper, Nova Scotia, its destination.

The dock at Point Tupper is the first and only one in the Western Hemisphere built to handle the world's largest tankers.

The ship, under charter to Gulf Oil Corporation, is 1,133 feet long. Standing on end, it would be almost as tall as the Empire State Building. Its cargo of more than two and one quarter million barrels of crude oil is enough fuel to supply a city as large as Washington, D. C. with electricity for three months. A have to make five transatlantic crossings to transport the same amount of fuel. Advanced technology is employed to assure safe landings for the "Universe Japan." The ship is equipped with sophisticated space age navigational instrumentation. The Canadian Government initiated a million, and a half dollar all-weather system of buoys, range lights and electronic guidance devices to assist mammoth tankers entering and leaving the Strait.

Hancock County Sheriff's Report

Two Shoreline Park juveniles have been arrested by the Hancock County Sheriff's Department and charged with burglarizing at least seven homes in this area. Stolen goods recovered include a gas tank and hose, green tool box and assorted tools, a power drill and wrench, curtains, Coleman gas stoves and crab traps. Sheriff Sylvan Ladner said that the two had also taken a 17-inch portable television set but they had thrown it into a bayou after receiving a shock while trying to connect the antenna. The juveniles were released to their families.

In another burglary investigation, the sheriff's department has arrested three juveniles for burglaries in Shoreline Park. Police recovered a 17-inch portable television set, a 22 caliber pistol and shells, an electric blanket, a radio and an alarm clock. One of the homes burglarized belonged to A.A. Holloway of Piquette. The three were released to their families.

Two runaway juvenile boys from New Orleans were picked up June 23 on Highway 607 with two stolen bicycles in their possession. Police returned the boys to their parents.

Bay St. Louis Police Report

Bay St. Louis police responded to 50 calls during the period June 20-27.

Two juvenile boys were picked up June 20 for vandalism at St. Stanislaus School. The two were allegedly breaking glass bottles by throwing them at an SSC school building. Police made them pick up the broken glass.

In another vandalism case, three juveniles are being questioned for damage done to the city's housing project on Sycamore St.

No injuries were reported in a two-car accident June 23 at 307 DeMontluzin St. Drivers of the cars were Michael McGinity and Mrs. W. Pennington.

Next Junior Police meeting is July 8 at 10 a.m.

Husbands Feted By Garden Clubbers

Members of the "Grow Beautiful Garden Club" entertained their husbands Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Piegrangelo, 11 W. Azalea Dr. in Long Beach. A buffet meal was served on the patio. An interesting addition to the meal was the viewing of an unusual waterfall flows over rocks collected by the Piegrangelos from all parts of the world. Co-hostessing the event were Mmes. Lloyd Changnan, Ellis Salloun and Jay Carter.

When You Go Dancing

Whenever business was good at a suburban night club, the management would "stretch" their space by putting extra tables and chairs on the edge of the dance floor. One night a dancing couple stumbled over a stray chair. The woman suffered painful injuries, and later sued the club for damages. She pointed out that the chair had been shoved several feet into the dancing area. "If it was," countered the management, "some other customer must have done the shoving. We are not legally liable for what our customers do."

But the court granted the woman's claim. The court said that by placing chairs directly onto the dance floor, the management had set the stage for trouble.

When you go dancing in a public place, you are entitled to conditions of reasonable safety. The dance floor, the lighting, and the furnishings should all be maintained in such a way as to minimize the chance of accidents. Nevertheless, merely by choosing this form of recreation, you are accepting those dangers that are "natural" to it. For example: Another woman, injured while dancing, claimed she lost her footing because the floor was slick. But the court found no reason to blame the management for this. As one judge put it: "Dance floors are intended to be slippery."

Furthermore, your own behavior might amount to negligence. That was the court's ruling in a case in which the claimant had ventured onto a bathroom floor in a state of advanced intoxication. And in another case, the court declared it was negligence for a woman to try a particularly tricky step while wearing heels three-and-a-half inches high. "The situation," said the judge, "parallels that of the risk taken by a participant in a sport."

Crime Commission Survey

formula to achieve this end is devised, it is the responsibility of each municipality. We believe it can be achieved through a realistic appraisal of the fiscal structure of each city and we feel, too, that should assistance be required from our citizens, the responsible governing bodies will receive their complete and enthusiastic support.

It takes only a cursory glance at the compiled statistics reflecting the salaries and benefits paid to our police officers on the Mississippi Coast to arouse public indignation.

Only two police departments in the three coastal counties pay anything near respectable compensation to their police officers. These departments are, Pascagoula and Moss Point. Chief Owen Davis of the Pascagoula Police Department, and Chief Charles Barber of the Moss Point Police Department, together with the support of their superiors and responsible city officials, are to be highly commended for their work in moving police salaries toward a goal compatible with our Coast economy. The starting salary for a police officer at the Pascagoula Police Department is $532.00 per month, ranging to a maximum of $579.00 per month, while the starting salary for a patrolman at the Moss Point Police Department is $500.00 per month, ranging to $564.00 per month. These salaries, while still not commensurate with the responsibilities given our police officers, compare favorably with salaries of police officers in selected surrounding areas.

During the course of this survey, Chief Owen Davis has been commended highly by officials of other police departments throughout the State for his leadership in initiating an employment program for his police officer which is recognized as a necessary, realistic and forthright approach to better law enforcement. In addition to this compensatory relief, the Pascagoula Police Department offers life insurance to its officers in the amount of $2,000.00 with the officers participating in payment of 50 percent of the premium. Health and accident insurance is provided, with the officer paying part of the premium. They also enjoy the security of the Civil Service Program and retirement benefits. An officer in the Pascagoula Police Department may retire after 20 years service at any age. There is a uniform allowance provided the officers in the amount of $200.00. An officer serves 40 hours per week and overtime pay or compensatory leave is allowed for all services over 40 hours. Up to 10 years service, the officer is allowed 2 weeks annual leave and 3 weeks, with over 10 years service. In addition, 12 days sick leave is provided to all officers, or one day per month.

Not only do the other municipal police departments fail to compare with the base salaries of the Pascagoula and Moss Point Police Departments, but they are woefully lacking in other benefits, such as insurance, hospitalization, employment security and retirement. Many do not even approach salaries paid for far less responsible positions in private businesses, industry and the Federal Government. For example, the Mississippi State Employment Service reports that a stenographer employed by a Utility may expect a salary ranging from $76.00 to $110.00 per week, and by a Bank from $87.50 to $107.25 per week; a truck driver operating in local traffic, is paid $2.31 per hour; construction laborers, $1.60 per hour to $2.50 per hour; a fork lift operator, $1.80 per hour to $2.21 per hour; an unskilled material handler, $1.60 per hour to $3.70 per hour; and a janitor in a Bank, $70.00 per week to $103.00 per week. Under United States Civil Service, a leather worker (shoe repairman) receives $3.22 to $4.59 per hour; a civilian guard, $38.00 to $172.40 per week; and a porter, from $84.00 per week to $132.80 per week. While it might be considered unfair to compare federal salaries to salaries local governments can afford, it is interesting to note that the pay rate schedule published by the Federal Government effective January 1, 1972, fixes the base pay for a beginning clerk at $3,165.00 per year; for a typist at $3,025.00, and a stenographer at $6,544.00. These salaries, of course, are accompanied by a multiple-benefit program.

The following statistics, compiled as a result of the Crime Commission survey, strongly emphasize that more Coast municipalities need to assign top priority to improving the financial conditions of their Police Department. This financial improvement will clearly be reflected by better law enforcement, and the retention of good police officers will be made possible. The morale of our police officers, individually and collectively, will reach new heights. And, equally important, our police administrators will be able to more easily recruit qualified men as police officers.

Through the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration of the Federal Government, many of our Police Department can qualify and receive generous grants for the purchase of materials, sophisticated equipment and for specialized training. Such grants can be a total waste unless the municipalities provide personnel with the desires, skills and intellectual capabilities to absorb and execute the federally funded operations. The recruitment employees with service of 10 years or over, Twelve days and training of personnel of this character are the sick leave per year are responsibilities of the provided and this leave is accumulative. The last raise municipalities. The salary figures listed given employees of this below represent gross department occurred on October 1, 1970, in the amount of 5 percent.

OCEAN SPRINGS POLICE DEPARTMENT
Patrolman's starting salary, $454.00 per month; highest salary in patrolman salary range, $492.50.

No life insurance offered employees of department. Blue Cross hospitalization provided to employees, with employee offered to participate in payment of premium. No retirement plan provided. No overtime pay or compensatory leave provided for all hours worked over 40 hours per week. Two weeks annual leave and 6 days sick leave per year are provided for employees. Ceremony Unites Cuevas-Ladner

In a candlelight ceremony June 17 Miss Marlene Ladner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Ladner of Perkins, became the bride of O'Neil Cuevas son of Mr. and Mrs. Dellis Cuevas of Kiln.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Tenis Ladner, uncle of the bride at Crane Creek Baptist Church. Music was provided by Mrs. Douglas Nease, organist.

Vows were exchanged under a white arch with ivy and large white daisies centered with white wedding bells. Baskets of white gladioli were placed on the column supporting the arch.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an A-line empire dress of silk organza over taffeta. The bodice was embroidered with silk organza with covered buttons in front. Sleeves were long with wide cuffs fastened with covered buttons. The A-line skirt was of plain silk organza over taffeta with flowers and the detachable train was of the same material as the bodice. The bride's floor length three tier veil of illusion fell from a head piece of white silk rose buds adorned with seed pearls. She carried a long cascade of feathered carnations, with stephanotis and white roses centered with a white orchid and sprigs of baby breath.

The bride was attended by her sister Mrs. Lamette Ladner as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Veronica Ladner, Suzette Ladner and Nilene Ladner sister of the bride. Flower girls were Ruth Ladner, niece of the bride and Pat Hebert.

Serving the groom as best man was Wyman Carr; groomsmen were Jamie Ladner, Clyde Moran, and Larry Shaw.

The reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Ladner, sister and brother-in-law of the bride.

Ryans Celebrate Silver Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Ryan were honored June 18 with a reception hosted by their children, Susan, Mike, Pat, Tim, Jim and Theresa at Trapnis Shamrock Inn on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Ryan renewed their marriage vows at a Mass at two o'clock in the afternoon in Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church.

Very Reverend Gregory Johnson, pastor, celebrant of the Mass, was assisted by Rev. George Kitchen and Rev. Deacon Elvin Sunds.

Arrangements of white carnations and baby's breath decorated the altar.

Mr. and Mrs. Ryan, the former Nathalie Buehler, were married June 16, 1947, in Our Lady of the Gulf Church with the late Rt. Rev. Msgr. A. J. Gmelch officiating.

Mrs. Ryan received their guests wearing a light blue knit dress with matching coat and beige accessories. A corsage of fleur d'amour and gypsophila completed her ensemble.

The table, overlaid with a lace cloth, was centered with a four-tiered cake flanked by six-branched table candelabra holding white tapers and centered with arrangements of white carnations, pom poms and gypsophila.

Mrs. Frank Taconi presided at the cake table, Mrs. Mary Wyman was at the punch bowl and Miss Theresa Ryan kept the guest register.

A large number of relatives and friends from Ocean Springs, New Orleans, Gretna, Hattiesburg, Donaldsonville, La. and Bay St. Louis attended the Mass and reception.

Local United Fund Has Summer Camp

President Sylvester R. Abbott and officials of the Hancock County United Fund are proud to announce that the contributors to the fund have again made it possible to provide one-week camping vacations during the month of July to approximately forty children at Camp Onward in Bay St. Louis.

The camp, which is owned and operated by Kingsley House of New Orleans area, it shares its facilities to afford wonderful free camping vacations for Hancock County children.

The selection of eligible children is being made by Mrs. Lucetta Fly, director of the Hancock County Welfare Department, who is being assisted by her staff, Mrs. Vincent Piazza and Maurice Mayo, a novice at St. Augustine's Seminary.

"We want to express our appreciation to Dr. W.L. McFarland, who each year has given our children their physical examinations before being accepted by the camp, and to Mrs. Mattie North, his assistant, who each year carries on camp nurse," said a UP volunteer.

Several local citizens and organizations are providing bedding, clothing and camp supplies for the children. Anyone wishing to assist may get in touch with Mrs. C.R. Beyer, executive secretary of the Hancock County United Fund. "It takes a lot of energy and much effort on the part of caring people to make a program of this type successful, but how wonderful it is to bring happiness into the life of a child, and what is more delightful than a summer swimming and camping vacation," Mrs. Beyer commented.

During the four years the Hancock County United Fund has conducted this program, approximately two hundred children from the area have attended Camp Onward, and their vacations were made possible by the contributors to the fund, which includes many other local youth programs. Among them are the Girl and Boy Scouts, the Retarded Children's School for Trainable Children, Red Cross Swimming and Life Saving, the Blood Bank and the new Coastal Mental Health Program, which has been so helpful in assisting with the difficulties that handicap some of the children at a pre-school age and while in school.

The total contributions made to the Hancock County United Fund are budgeted and distributed to the twelve agencies which share in the fund.

The yearly October campaign of the Hancock County United Fund eliminates the multiple drives each of these agencies would necessarily have to carry on their work. The complete list of agencies are: American Red Cross, Boy Scouts - Gulf Pines Council, Hancock County Retarded Children's Association, Coastal Mental Health Program, Catholic Social Services, Hancock County Emergency Relief Fund, Hancock County Blood Bank, Gulf Coast Family Counseling Agency, Camp Onward, U.S.O., and Traveler's Aid Association of America.

BROTHER AQUIN

Brother Aquin Will Attend PR Seminar

Brother Aquin Gauthier, director of public relations at St. Stanislaus High School in Bay St. Louis, will attend the Nineteenth National Seminar of the National School Public Relations Association.

This seminar, designed particularly for people engaged in public relations work at a secondary school level, will be held in St. Louis, Missouri, from July 9-13. The seminar will make use of general sessions and "job alike" groups in all phases of public relations work. Some of the areas to be studied are: Audio-visual Presentations, Public Affairs, Writing and Speaking Rules, Parent Relations, Media Relations, Community Relations, and Publications. In addition, twenty National Seminar Consultants will be available to assist seminar members on specific communication problems.

Brother Aquin has been on the faculty of St. Stanislaus for six years and has spent the past five years in public relations work for the school. He is a member of the National School Public Relations Association, and he is also a member of the Advertising Club of New Orleans.

CE Student Will Live In France

Miss Bobbi Ann Castelin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Castelin of Pass Christian, will leave for Lyons, France, next week where she will reside with a family native to that country for one month.

Upon her return to the United States on August 3rd, a French student from her "family" will accompany her, and will be a guest of the Castellins for a month.

The exchange program, now in its third year, is headed by Dr. Howard Jacobson of the University of Mississippi. The program is designed to give students a first-hand experience of life in another country.

Miss Castelin, a senior student at Coast Episcopal High School in Bay St. Louis, was student council representative of her class this past year. She is also active with the Christ Episcopal Church youth group, and is currently president of the Episcopal Young Churchmen. She is also Sunday School teacher for the pre-schoolers of Christ Episcopal Church.

Two other Coast Episcopal High School students are also participating in a student exchange program this summer: Elizabeth Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cooper, Jr. of Pass Christian,

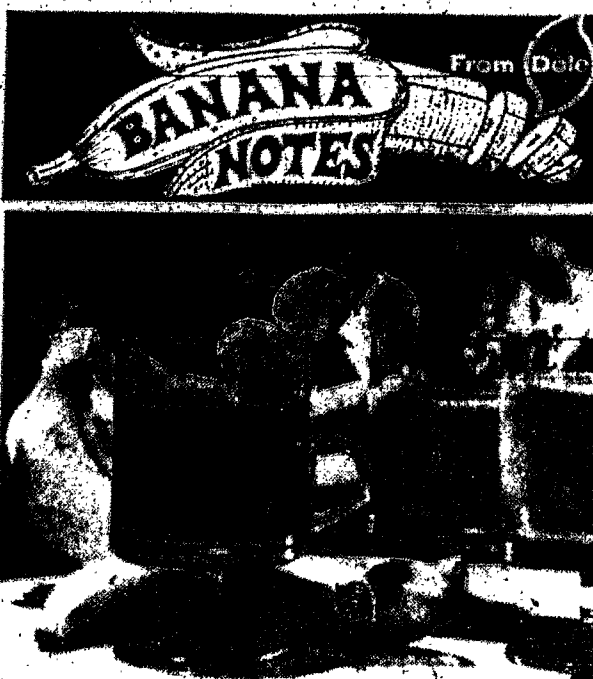

Faculty Named For CEHS, CEDS

Peter Psikogios, Principal of Christ Episcopal Day School, announced this week that the faculty for the new school will be named. The faculty will be available during the day for extra help as needed by the students.

The school instructors will start the new school term in their new facilities on Espy Avenue in Pass Christian, September 5th. Homeroom teachers Miss Diane Fuller, Mrs. J.M. Luck, Mr. Charles Lyle, Mrs. Donald Coffer, Miss Linda McCulloch and Mrs. G.P. Stanton have been assigned to grades seven through twelve, respectively. English will be taught by Mrs. G.P. Stanton and Mrs. Beatrice B. Sanders; science by Mrs. Sam McCulloch and Dr. S.L. Sabharwal; mathematics by Mrs. J.M. Luck and Mr. Peter Psikogios; history by Miss Linda McCulloch and Mr. Charles Lyle; languages by Miss Diane Fuller, Mrs. Philip Ambler, Mrs. Thomas Pendleton and Mrs. Beatrice B. Sanders; business education by Mrs. Dana L. Fayard; music by Mrs. T.A. Tedford, Jr., and religion by the Reverend Charles R. Johnson.

Mrs. Coffer is the guidance counselor and will also teach driver education. The coaching staff for football, basketball, softball and tennis includes Mr. Charles Lyle, Mr. Lambert Boyd, and Miss Linda McCulloch.

The only vacancies existing at the present time are for librarian and possibly secondary art.

Desserts To Drink

Banana dessert drinks are thick and sweet, cool and frosty. They are dessert and beverage combined, making them the perfect ending to company meals. They were just made to linger over and are company special when served in pretty glass mugs topped with sweet, succulent banana slices.

Extra good news is these banana dessert drinks are quick and easy to make using an electric mixer or blender. They are so easy to make you may want to give your guests their choice of these recipes from the Dole Banana kitchens.

CHOCOLATE BANANA DREAM

1 Dole banana, peeled and cut into chunks
2 ounces Kahlua
With electric mixer or blender, mix bananas with Kahlua, cream de cacao and ice until smooth. Makes 2 servings.

BANANA FROTH

1 Dole banana, peeled and cut into chunks
2 small scoops vanilla ice cream
With mixer or blender, mix bananas, ice cream and sherry until smooth. Sprinkle with nutmeg. Makes 2 servings.

BANANA SMOOTHIE

1 Dole banana, peeled and cut into chunks
2 ounces brandy
With electric mixer or blender, mix bananas with remaining ingredients until smooth. Makes 2 servings.

Ph.D Will Teach At CEHS

Peter Psikogios, Principal of Coast Episcopal High School, this week announced the appointment of Dr. S.L. Sabharwal as science instructor for the new facility of that school in Pass Christian the coming year.

Dr. Sabharwal received his Bachelor of Science degree in 1967 from Delhi University, with courses taken in agriculture, botany, zoology and chemistry. In 1968 he received his Master of Science degree from Agra University, studying plant physiology, statistics and horticulture. Additional courses were taken in horticulture, plant physiology and biochemistry at Oregon State University, with a Ph.D. from that University awarded him in 1971.

He has had nine years of teaching experience in the area of science, and has served as Research Assistant and Research Associate at Oregon State University in Corvallis, Oregon.

In 1965 Dr. Sabharwal had published a paper on the Standardization of Fruit Plants, and has submitted several additional papers for publication in the field of biology. He is married and has one child.

Gaudet Making Research Trip

William G. Gaudet, editor of Latin American Report Newsletter and Latin American Report magazine from 1946 until 1969, leaves on July 1 on an extended trip to gather research material for an up-dated study on all Central American countries.

The study, which will include individual reports on British Honduras, Guatemala, El Salvador, Honduras, Nicaragua, Costa Rica and Panama, will deal with general business conditions, the political structure, investment opportunities, export-import trade and tourism.

Gaudet will be accompanied by his wife who will also act as a research assistant.

The study will not be published in a magazine format, but will follow the newsletter approach in order to afford a greater flexibility in writing and in-depth analysis.

Prior to starting Latin American Report newsletter Gaudet was roving editor in Latin America for U.S. News & World Report. During World War II he represented Nelson Rockefeller, then Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs, in Central America. His home base was San Jose, Costa Rica.

Gaudet now live in semi-retirement in Waveland. Although this new study, which will be off the press the first week in September, is being privately published by Gaudet, the entire project has been made possible by financial support from individuals, international business firms, both U.S. & foreign, banks, universities and various governmental agencies.

Ecology Center Removes Barrels

The Neighborhood Ecology Center's recycling barrels, now located in Winn Dixie Shopping Center and Food Discount Center parking to be removed.

Due to lack of co-operation from the public the barrels are being used as trash cans. People are throwing their chicken bones and picnic leftovers in with the clean glass and cans creating an unhealthy, unpleasant job for the few volunteers who have devoted their time to collecting and maintaining the barrels.

The N.E.C. regrets that this action must be taken and wishes to thank all those responsible individuals who did their part by turning in their recyclables.

There just aren't enough volunteers to keep this project going so we have decided to make a few changes. The barrels will now be located at Brother James Glass and Paper Shed at St. Augustine's Seminary. All can collection has been completely discontinued. Only clean metal free glass (labels may remain) and newspaper will be taken. Brother James has expressed the importance of removing the metal rings and has asked for volunteers to help in removing the rings from the glass all ready stored in the shed.

If anyone is physically unable to bring in glass or newspapers please feel free to call an executive member of the N.E.C. by dialing 467-3519, 467-3469 or 467-6897.

The N.E.C. is in need of new members. There are no monetary dues.

CRAFTY IDEAS

EMBRACEABLE YOU

Want to make bracelets that look "far out"? Here's what you need: Niagara instant laundry starch, cold water, wire, bandage gauze, tissue paper, newspaper and string.

Make a paste by mixing equal parts of instant laundry starch and cold water until starch is dissolved. Let stand a few minutes to thicken. This paste will give the bracelets lasting shape.

To make colorful bracelets for a more embraceable you, bend an 8 to 10-inch wire into a circle large enough to slip over wrist. Wrap with bandage gauze dipped into the starch paste. Coat with extra paste and cover with tiny pieces of colored tissue paper. For chunkier bracelets, dip strips of newspaper into the starch paste. Coat with extra paste and cover with tiny pieces of colored tissue paper. For chunkier bracelets, dip strips of newspaper into the starch paste. Coat with extra paste and cover with tiny pieces of colored tissue paper.

To make bracelets from string, start with lengths cut long enough to circle wrist at least twice or about 18 inches long. Dye string colorful shades. When dry, dip into starch paste and wrap around a bottle of size desired, wrapping one length after another and tucking ends in. Dry on bottle. When bracelets are dry, spray with clear plastic or coat with shellac or clear nail polish.

HOUSEHUNTER'S Guide

RAISING THE ROOF

Whether you're in the market for a new primary home for comfortable everyday living, or a second home just for leisure-time fun, raising the right roof should be one of your most important considerations.

Why? Because the roof you raise will not only be your new home's main defense against the elements, it will also have a lot to do with its vulnerability to fire.

With that in mind, here are some things you should know about roofing materials, to help you put a ceiling on possible hazards.

Asphalt Shingles. The most popular type of roofing, these come in a wide variety of colors and shapes and offer years of good service. Conventional asphalt shingles are made with an organic base, are rated Class C by Underwriters' Laboratories, and provide only basic protection against light fire exposure.

Wood Shingles and Shakes. Though beautiful, cedar shingles and shakes are not fire-resistant, which is why some cities no longer permit them to be used unless they are chemically treated.

Slate and Tile Shingles. Both slate and tile shingles are good-looking and long-lasting. Their Class A fire rating means protection against severe fire exposure. They weigh a lot, however, and a home must be very sturdy to bear their weight.

Asbestos Cement Shingles. These Class A shingles are strong, durable and fire-resistant, cost less and weigh less than slate or tile, but cost more and weigh more than fiber glass shingles.

Fiber Glass Shingles. Considered by many to be the best roofing material, fiber glass shingles have all of the attributes but none of the drawbacks of slate, tile and asbestos cement. For example, new Rampart Seal-O-Matic® fiber glass shingles from Johns-Manville are attractive, long-lasting and tough while weighing and costing relatively little. In fact, they're the lowest-priced shingles you can buy with a Class A fire-resistant rating from Underwriters' Laboratories.

How can you be sure a roofer is qualified to raise the roof of your choice? Ask him to show you some of the jobs he's done, and talk to some of his customers. If they're satisfied with his workmanship and service, chances are you will be, too.

New Medicare Leaflet Available To Public

Copies of a new expanded edition of the Medicare leaflet, "How to Claim Medical Insurance Benefits," are available upon request from the Gulfport Social Security Office, Gwendolyn L. Dunlap, representative of the Gulfport social security office, said today.

Mrs. Dunlap said the new edition includes information on how Medicare determines the "reasonable charges" for physicians' services. For elderly people signed up for the doctor bill insurance part of Medicare, she noted, the law provides payment for 80 percent of the "reasonable charges," over and above an annual deductible of $50.

Under Medicare law and regulations, a charge is considered "reasonable": (1) if it is no higher than the doctor has been customarily charging all his patients, Medicare and non-Medicare, for the particular service; and (2) if it is also no higher than the charges made for that service in three out of every four cases by the other doctors in that locality.

WHEN MEDICARE DOES NOT RECOGNIZE FULL AMOUNT OF A BILL

A doctor's bill for services to a Medicare beneficiary is higher than his customary charge, or higher than the charges made by most other doctors in the locality, the Medicare payment is not based on the full amount of the bill, Mrs. Dunlap said, but on the amount determined to be the "reasonable charge."

THE DOCTOR AGREES TO ASSIGNMENT

For the Medicare beneficiary who has already paid the first $50 of his covered medical expenses for the year—the determined amount—the Medicare payment will amount to 80 percent of the "reasonable charge." If the doctor has agreed to use the assignment method of payment, the patient will owe his doctor only the remaining 20 percent.

THE ASSIGNMENT METHOD OF PAYMENT

Under the assignment method, the doctor agrees to send in the bill and to have the Medicare payment made to him. He also agrees that his fee charge will be no higher than what is decided to be the "reasonable charge."

IF THE DOCTOR DOES NOT ACCEPT ASSIGNMENT

When a physician does not wish to accept an assignment, but prefers to let the beneficiary collect the Medicare payment, the doctor is under no obligation to reduce his total charge to the amount that has been determined under the Medicare law to be the "reasonable charge." Medicare will pay the beneficiary 80 percent of the "reasonable charge" minus any part of the $50 deductible that has not yet been met. The Medicare beneficiary is then responsible for paying the full amount of the doctor's charge as billed, even though it may be higher than the "reasonable charge."

Mrs. Dunlap said that the assignment method of payment was used in over 60 percent of the 51.4 million claims for doctors' services submitted for Medicare payment last year. In about 45 percent of the claims, a charge was found to be higher than the amount that Medicare recognizes as a "reasonable charge" and Medicare payments overall were based on an amount 11 percent less than the total billed. In the 60 percent of claims submitted under the assignment method, Mrs. Dunlap said, the doctor absorbed the amount of any reduction.

The leaflet, Mrs. Dunlap said, emphasizes that although the doctor's bill may be more than the Medicare "reasonable charge," this does not necessarily mean that his charge for the particular service is not reasonable.

MEDICARE RECORDS MAY NOT YET REFLECT NEW HIGHER CHARGES

It could mean, for example, that the doctor has recently increased his charges, and that the increased rates have not been in effect long enough for Medicare records to show that the new higher charges are being made to his patients.

Medicare, like many other health insurance programs does not recognize a higher charge until it has been in effect long enough to be considered "customary."

Each year, a full review is made of the amounts physicians have been charging for medical services during the preceding calendar year and "reasonable charges" under Medicare are updated to take any changes into account.

Or, it could also mean that the particular doctor's charge for the service is in the upper bracket of doctors' charges in the locality, and for that reason the charge is not considered by Medicare to be a "reasonable charge."

Planned Program Of Pool Care

Saves Time, Worry And Money

Ten years ago, there were less than 200,000 family pools in the nation. Today there are over a million. By 1980, there'll be nearly two million. If you don't own one, you may very soon. The rapid growth in popularity of the plunge-by-the-patio has brought about rapid advancements in the maintenance of today's pools. And today's pool owner owes it to himself, his family, his guests, and to his bank balance to keep up-to-date on new pool care techniques and products.

Care In Selecting A Pool. There are three factors: size, shape and cost. Select the most logical spot on your property, from the standpoint of convenience to the house for parties and children watching, making certain your pool is clear of falling leaves. Then consult a qualified pool installation firm, nearby. Get a line on what you want from your friends and neighbors pools.

Care In Readyng Your Pool For The Season. Clean out all loose debris. Wash down wall. Check drains and fittings. Repair and replace. Then clean walls, bottom, and fittings with a good solvent cleaner. Scrub all areas with a chlorine stock solution—1 oz. per gallon of water.

Care In Keeping Pool Water Clean. Chlorination of pool water is the accepted means of purification. And it's easier done today than ever before. For example, a newly developed, large, extra-convenience tablet, called Super Chlor-Tab, is both efficient and convenient. Chlorine kills bacteria and the tiny algae plants that grow in pools—and it supplies a residual that kills new bacteria, and inhibits the growth of new algae. Super Chlor-Tab, newest in the Penn swim line of pool care products, are six times larger than ordinary chlorine tablets. Only one tab a day for each 2,500 gallons, provides sure, steady, all-day protection.

pH control is the key to "comfortable" water. Irritation to eyes and mucous membranes, skin discomfort and swimsuit bleaching are caused by improper pH balance. It also causes unpleasant odors and costly, inefficient excessive chlorine consumption. pH is a convenient way of telling how acid or alkaline the water is. The pH scale runs from 0 to 14—pH 7 is neutral. People are comfortable in a narrow pH zone, between 7.2 and 7.6. Careful test kit checking daily is essential. Acidic water is corrosive. Alkaline water forms a whitish scale. "Chlorine residual" should also be regularly checked with a test kit. The test kit will pay for itself up at a nearby pool store, without your rate, without your Efficient, modern pool care means following the basics consistently—readyng your pool for the season—keeping pool water clean—closing down properly. And keeping up-to-date on the latest techniques, including chlorination with new super-size, extra-convenience tablets.

Care In Closing Down Your Pool. Water should be left in the pool during the off-season, especially in cold weather. Water in the pool protects buried pipes from damage. All pipes not buried below the frost line should be drained. For care of

Plug in a better life

Our living standards are improving, and electricity is one of the reasons why.

Electric appliances protect your health, add to your comfort, and improve the environment around you. Electricity lightens many housekeeping burdens and brings entertainment into your home. Electric service from Mississippi Power Company is STILL the biggest bargain in the family budget.

And if some months your electric bill seems a bit high, it's mainly because of the many ways you or your family have used electricity to "plug in" a better life.

Eagan Wins Quarter Finals

Marc Eagan of Bay-Waveland Yacht Club compiled a total of 18 1/2 points to win the quarter finals of the Sears Cup for the National Junior Championship.

The 18 1/2 place points were merited by Eagan through two firsts and two seconds of the four races sailed. The fifth race of this round robin was cancelled by the race committee because of heavy winds of 38 m.p.h. and rough seas on Lake Pontchartrain.

Buzzy Heausler and Bobby Eagan ably assisted skipper Eagan during the series as his crew.

This win enables B W Y C team to participate and represent the Gulf Yachting Association in the semi-finals along with second place skipper Corky Potts of Southern Yacht Club with 14 1/2 points. Cran Frazier and Chris Christensen crewed for Potts.

Bay-Waveland Yacht Club will host this event on July 15 and 16. Other contenders in the quarter finals were Don Brennan of New Orleans with 10 points; Rick Whitehurst of Pensacola with nine and one quarter points and Lee Barthwick of Fort Walton with seven points.

Changes Made In Narcotics Bureau

On July 1, the Mississippi Bureau of Narcotics will undergo several changes as prescribed by a bill passed by the recent session of the Mississippi Legislature.

The most significant change, according to Kenneth W. Fairly, bureau director, is the transfer of the agency from the State Board of Health to the Department of Public Safety. "We feel this change will enhance our ability as a law enforcement agency to continue our work to end the drug epidemic in Mississippi," Fairly said. "A good working relationship has existed between our Bureau and the Board of Health," the director added, "but this change will combine the efforts, resources, and abilities of several state agencies dedicated to law enforcement."

It is also pointed out in the new law that any person having possession of controlled substances is required to report to the Bureau any theft, burglary, robbery, or attempt of any of these three, or their mysterious disappearance within 48 hours after discovery.

Fairly in commenting on the new notification responsibility said, "We feel this will be advantageous in connecting robberies with known pushers in our state."

The existence of a shortage of manpower at the present time will limit the investigative ability of the Bureau. The director urged all licensed professionals to understand this and cooperate in alerting the agency of any disappearances.

In addition the new act charges the Narcotics Bureau with the responsibility to investigate the circumstances surrounding death or suspected death by drug overdose.

LEBANON -- LAND OF HISTORY

The name Lebanon originates with the Arabic word "Lubnan" meaning white; the white is the white of the snow which in winter blankets the cedars of Lebanon, growing in ancient majesty on the Lebanese Mountains.

For the tourist interested in antiquity and the memorable history has indeed left its mark on Beirut - from its name to St. George's Bay - where the legendary saint slew the dragon and saved the maiden. In 64 B.C., the city came under Roman domination.

As Colonia Julia Augusta Felix Berytus it held the status of a Roman city and was famed in the Roman world for its law school, which rivaled those of Athens, Alexandria and Carthage. The ruins of this law school, destroyed in an earthquake in 550 A.D., have recently been unearthed in the center of the city.

Lebanon is a scenic country with a rich history that has left its marks in varied forms and in many places. The ruins of Baalbek are among the most majestic Roman ruins in the world. Crusader castles are perched on hillsides from the Syrian borders in the North, to the ruins of Beirut in the South. Lebanon, and the National Museum exhibits Phoenician jewelry and glass

BROTHER LEON, S.C., will represent the Gulf Coast Chapter of the Mississippi Archeological Association in presenting artifacts to museums in Santa Fe and Albuquerque, New Mexico. While in New Mexico, Brother Leon will visit and photograph the sites presently being studied by the archeological team of the University of Albuquerque. Four faculty members of St. Stanislaus (Brothers Albert, Leon, Eduardo and Malcolm) are members of the Gulf Coast Chapter of the Mississippi Archeological Association. Among the 35 active members of this chapter are two students at St. Stanislaus (Chris Wilkerson and Tommy Marsh).

Waveland Notes

By Mrs. Della Wendling 467-4984

Mr. and Mrs. James McCune had members of her family over for Father's Day weekend. Here for the festivities were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kent Laughlin of Pass Christian; her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Laughlin of Slidell and Mr. and Mrs. Red Laughlin of Pass Christian.

Mrs. Hazel Vitari has just returned home after visiting with her family in New Orleans.

Miss Linda Bourgeois has just returned from Fort Myers, Fla. where she was visiting with her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Denny Neale. While there she made various sightseeing trips.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kolat. They are the proud parents of a seven-pound baby girl.

By L.S. (Dag Elliott)

Weather conditions are still good for fishing and most all other sports. Fish are being caught, soft crabs are giving a little, while hard crabs are more plentiful. Floundering is getting better and the flat fish are being caught by those fishing on the bottom using dead shrimp. With the tide going out for the past few days several good catches of bass and perch have been reported.

Pearl River proper is clear and fly fishing has been excellent the past few days. Bass are being gotten up Pearl River as far as Mike's River. They are hitting mostly in the late evening. Caught some until 8:30 p.m. Thanks to Day Light Saving Time.

Over the weekend folks had trailers, tents and other camping equipment all along Pearl River at Logtown, parents.

SPORTSMAN OF THE WEEK

Believe it or not Ted Robb was once a fisherman when younger. Doesn't do much now, too busy, he says. You never forget how to swim, fish or dance. Better get back in the groove, Ted.

Met Jay M. Jolenak, his wife and daughter Mimi. They were attending the Masons picnic. Jay is a former sports writer with LSU Daily Reveille and the Baton Rouge Morning Advocate. He was president of the LSU Alumni Federation. Mimi, 14 years, drove the car for the first time Sunday. She was a happy girl.

Toby Necaise went fishing and caught one croaker. He went back home and got his (Mother Gun) as he calls it, a cast net. He got a half sack of mullets. That is the best way to catch fish, he said.

Alden Mauffray had as his guest, C.J. Gordon of New Orleans. They went fishing Wednesday and Sunday and returned home with some nice bass. They are old time fishing buddies. C.J. is a former resident of the Bay.

Al Mercier didn't have fishing on his mind Monday of this week. Instead he and the Mrs. were celebrating their 50th Wedding Anniversary with their family and friends. Happy Anniversary, folks.

Met Monti, Uncle Bud Seiler, Red Seymour, Melba Seymour and Ruby; Larry Lafontaine and Joe; Jimmy George and Captain Tom Caine were disappointed when they had to cancel their fishing trip planned for Sunday aboard the "John Manor" on account of engine trouble. There will be other days, folks.

Henry Favre, Johnny Favre, Donald Strong, Stocky Strong and Mike Strong made a trip to the Astrodome at Houston, Texas to witness the Houston and Phillies baseball game. All claimed the trip was wonderful and the Astrodome out of this world. It is called "The Eighth Wonder of the World."

Julius Sellinger, father of Nell Dahlstrom is visiting Nell and Bob for a few days. Julius hails from Groesbeck, Texas where he catches fresh water catfish as a pastime. Gets some big ones, too.

Steve Plotkin recently became a member of the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club. Steve loves all kinds of water sports including fishing. He has a home on North Beach and catches all kinds of fish.

Wade Embry who lives on Burdett St. has been a resident a long time. Wade also loves to fish, catch crabs, etc. Always ready to do something.

Red Seymour has two additions to his family, a pet coon and a pet rabbit. Of course they were given to the kids for their pleasure.

Met a pretty swell guy in Charles V. Smith. Been a resident a long time. He fishes and hunts and loves the outdoors. Lives on 3rd St. Better get together Charles and do some fishing, soft crabbing, etc.

A good crowd had a time attending a Grand Picnic sponsored by the Jefferson Lodge No. 191 F and AM given at the home of Steve and Lynn Plotkin on North Beach. Sunday, June 25, Steve and Lynn served as hosts and did a swell job. Steve also served as Worshipful Master for the picnic.

There were fishing, games, swimming and boating and what have you.

Among those attending were Worshipful Master George O. Daigle, III, and his officers. Many members were in attendance. Several Past Masters present were Morton Penner, Houston R. Lee, James D. Spears, David Gerther, Joseph P. Bato, H.M. Leonard Bronik, Charles V. Smith a long time member of Jefferson Lodge and a Bay St. Louis resident.

It was a tired but happy bunch that returned to their homes in New Orleans after a wonderful day of pleasure on the Wonderful Gulf Coast.

After driving 200 miles and fishing all day, when you pull up to the dock some old man always says, "You shoulda been here yesterday!" - Miss. Game and Fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Baudry returned to their home Friday after almost a week's vacation here. They and the kids did fishing, crabbing and soft crabbing. They caught green trout and perch each day by fly fishing. Will be back on weekends, they said.

Ben Mutter and his son enjoyed plenty fishing while on vacation. Ben commutes to N.O. each day.

Louis Decell and Harry Roman made a nice catch of flounders up Jourdan River Saturday. They were caught on the bottom with dead shrimp.

We had two distinguished guests from Wisconsin at the Bay this past weekend. One was Edward H. Mercier, brother of Al Mercier of Colby, Wisconsin and Arthur Long from Stanley, Wisc. These men do quite a bit of fishing. In that part of the country they catch blue gills, bass, walleyes and other fish. They were here to attend the 50th wedding anniversary of the Al Merciers.

Two Tie For Best Idea Of Month In Do-It-Yourself Competition

One Wins By Making Most Of His Time, The Other By Rolling His Own.

You too can make your time count by developing your ability to work with tools. I. William J. Koranda of Chicago, built his own clock and tied with 2. Carl S. Goss of Lewisville, Pa., who built his own Redwood Camper to win "Best Idea of the Month" in Do-It-Yourself contest sponsored by Wen Products of Chicago.

Each monthly winner receives a trophy, a home workshop of four newest Wen Pro-Power tools, and qualifies for Best Idea of the Year, trip for two to Greece, $500 spending money and Grand Prize trophy and assortment of tools.

The clock, made of solid Cherrywood is 6 1/2" tall, weighs 80 lbs., and runs 8 days. The Camper is built from 3/8" plywood, has one inch of styrofoam insulation and exposed redwood beams. Roof is 1/4" fir plywood, the joints covered with a strip of fiberglass cloth and the whole roof covered with roof coating. Corners are sealed with aluminum angle. Both winners used portable electric saws, drills and sanders.

The Turan-Lane Dealership (And What It Means To You)

Just a little over a year ago Harmon Turan came to Bay St. Louis and joined Gerry Lane in The Chevrolet Business.

Harmon Turan is Vice-President and Gen. Mgr. of this Dealership who realizes that its success depends entirely on satisfied customers.

Courteous, Fair, and Impartial Treatment is a MUST.

Joe Geneveve, with 22 years experience was hired as Service Manager. Pete Moran with 10 years experience was hired as asst. Service Mgr.

Harmon Turan has personally taken over the supervision of the sales department with John Gallagher's assistance.

We plan to build the future of this dealership on satisfied service and sales customers and to continue to make it an asset to the people of Bay St. Louis and Hancock County.

Remember our motto: "The only deals we miss are the ones we don't know about."

MEC Merit Program Receives Recognition

Mississippi's new MERIT Program for counties has received national recognition as "one of the most comprehensive county development programs ever offered in the nation."

The program is a project of the Mississippi Economic Council, the state's chamber of commerce. Recognition came from the U.S. Chamber of Commerce in a special publication of outstanding state chamber projects.

MEC launched the MERIT Program with a series of nine area meetings throughout the state early this year. Since that time, some 30 counties have enrolled in the program. Local participation is sponsored by local chambers of commerce, county boards of supervisors, or by both groups.

Walter Ellis of Kosciusko, chairman of the board of LaVet Dairy Products, is chairman of the MERIT Program.

"Mississippi is recognized as a national leader in the field of community development,"

Ellis said. "This new program, designed to measure the quality of county government and services, continues our leadership in this area."

The U.S. Chamber, Ellis said, distributed nationally a publication outlining the principles of the Mississippi program.

In the publication, the U.S. Chamber said, "The Mississippi Economic Council has long recognized the relationship of county government to the development of local areas. The new county improvement program, which is the fifth MEC-sponsored community development program, offers county officials and volunteers standards to gauge the effectiveness of services offered to county citizens."

"Through this activity, the Council seeks to stimulate efforts to attain these standards by local volunteer action in cooperation with public officials. It is a program similar to the highly successful Merit Program for municipalities of the 1960's in which 100 Mississippi communities participated."

Colling's Corner

By E.S. Colling

City-County Library Writer

In 1782 a firm in London cast a large bell on order of the Pennsylvania Assembly for the State House in Philadelphia. The bell weighed 2000 pounds, and on it was the inscription, "Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof," (Leviticus 25, 10).

Soon after the big bell had been hung in the belfry of the beautiful old Colonial building in what is now Independence Square the Colonial Congress was transferred to Philadelphia. There in the spacious hall or under the trees in the warm Pennsylvania sunshine might be seen Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson, Roger Sherman, Benjamin Harrison, Button Grinnett and other early stalwarts of liberty.

By 1776 the Congress and the people of the colonies were fed up with the injustice and tyranny of the British Crown. A Declaration of Independence was drawn up under the guiding hand of Jefferson, and on July 4th, 1776, it was signed by all fifty six members of the Congress. John Hancock, for whom our county in Mississippi is named, led all the rest with a signature so big the King couldn't miss it. When the signing was announced the immense crowd in the Square went wild with joy and excitement and the old belling rang the big bell, so the story goes, for two solid hours.

In 1811 when the British invaded the east coast of the United States the Congress evacuated to the Pennsylvania Dutch country west of Philadelphia and the bell, even then recognized as one of the country's most hallowed relics, went with it on a big flatbed horse-drawn wagon. Two years later it was returned to Independence Hall. Twenty two years later, while being rung in 1835, it cracked from top to bottom. No attempt has ever been made to repair it, and the wide crack has become one of its most distinguishing features.

The Liberty Bell has been transported many times to expositions and national celebrations, always with the greatest care and with armed protection. Today it is mounted on a stand in the entrance hall of the beautiful old building in Philadelphia beside a wide, wooden stairway that leads up to the chamber in which the Declaration of Independence was signed one hundred and ninety six years ago, a beautiful room in the old severe Colonial style with tall windows on three sides and containing, on a low platform, the plain wooden table at which each of the delegates sat while affixing his signature to the historic document.

On this Fourth of July, pause for a moment in the turmoil of daily living to think of that old bell, the second great symbol of our Union next to the Stars and Stripes. And every child and young person should go to the Public Library and read the details of the part the Liberty Bell played in the founding of our nation.

Children Enjoy Program

A Summer Reading Program, sponsored by the Long Beach Public Library, is underway as a summer recreational and educational activity for children of the city. Mrs. Ethel Taquino, coordinator of the Summer Reading Program, advises that the program is devised to encourage children to read more on their own, working on a reward incentive basis, as well as providing entertaining group activity periods on a scheduled format at the library. Children participating are urged to read ten books during the summer. Those completing that number will receive a reading certificate from the library at the end of the program. Certificates are presented at a party for the children given as a closing activity.

Monday the children were shown The Ugly Duckling and other films will include Madeleine and This is Venice, scheduled for July 17.

Parents may register children for inclusion in the activity anytime during the course of the program which ends August 12 Mrs. Taquino said.

Cancer Society Collections Told

A total of $387.70 has thus far been collected through the residential campaign of the Long Beach American Cancer Society Crusade, according to an announcement from chairman Richard Kinser.

sections of the city still remain to be covered by campaign workers, and any persons interested in joining the drive may contact him in Long Beach or the American Cancer Society office on Courthouse Road in Gulfport.

The slogan for this year's Reading Program, Mrs. Taquino said, is Keep America Beautiful. Children enrolled are divided into two age groups with weekly story hours, films and arts and crafts planned for each group.

Group One is composed of

Timeless Clocks

World famous Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn, Michigan has announced that a group of outstanding clocks from its vast collections is being reproduced exclusively by Colonial of Zeland, Michigan.

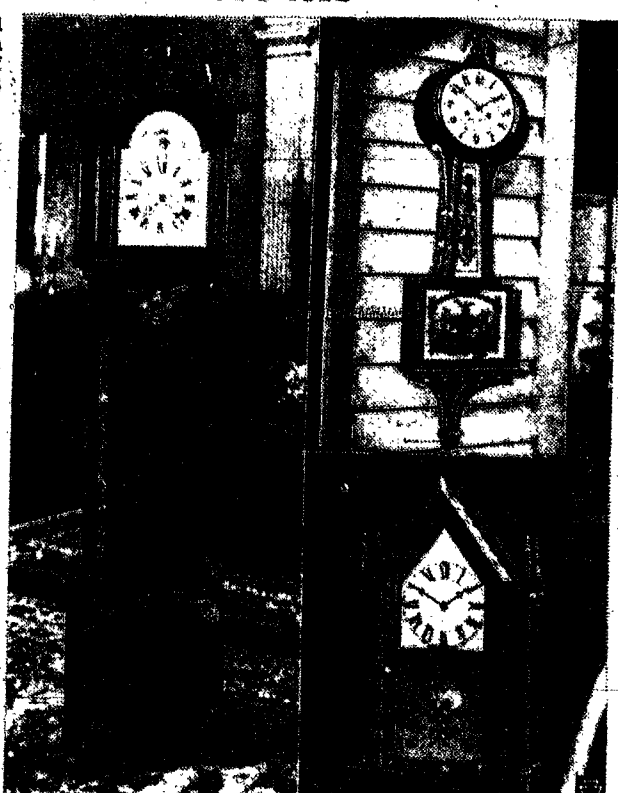

Initially, six clocks were produced representing the fine craftsmanship of the early years of American decorative arts. In the near future, two more are to be added. Colonial designers spent almost two years in reproducing as authentically as possible timepieces originally made by such famous clockmakers as Aaron Willard, Joseph Doll, Brewster & Ingrahams and E. N. Welch.

To ensure the authenticity of the reproduction of the spirit as well as the appearance of the original, Henry Ford Museum officials periodically reviewed progress, inspecting every detail of design, construction and wood finish before approving them for manufacture.

Two clocks of Aaron Willard, the notable clockmaker of Boston, are included in this group. One, reproduced from a Tall Clock made about 1785, has an unusual dial with a ship that rocks with every stroke of the pendulum. The reproduction has been reduced to 85% from the original 84 1/2" with all parts scaled accordingly, to be suitable for today's interiors.

Colonial's Joseph Doll Tall Clock is reproduced from one made by this outstanding cabinetmaker in Lancaster, Pennsylvania about 1820. It features intricate inlaid marquetry, on the legs, waist and base.

The maker of the original Lancaster County Painted Clock in the group is unknown. Some of its unusual features, however, suggest Hy Bower and E. Swome, who worked in
